Don't Suffer!

"I had been troubled, a little, for nearly 7 years," writes Mrs. L. Fincher, in a letter from Peavy, Ala., "but I was not taken down, until March, when I went to bed and had to have a doctor. He did all he could for me, but I got no better. I hurt all over, and I could not rest. At last, I tried Cardui, and soon I began to improve. Now I am in very good health, and able to do all my housework."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

You may wonder why Cardui is so successful, after other remedies have failed. The answer is that Cardui is successful, because it is composed of scientific ingredients, that act curatively on the womanly system. It is a medicine for women, and for women only. It builds, strengthens, and restores weak and ailing women, to health and happiness.

If you suffer like Mrs. Fincher did, take Cardui. It will surely do for you, what it did for her. At all druggists.

MISS THERESA PARSELEY WINS $10.00 GOLD PIECE

IN FIRST COUNT IN THE PIANO VOTING CONTEST SHE CARRIES OFF HONORS—MISS JONES SECOND

In other issues of The Gazette it has been announced that the Contest Ballot Box, in this office, would be opened for the first time, on August 29. Accordingly, at 7:30 o'clock, last evening, the judges took possession of the box and promptly started the count. The auditing was done by the auditing committee assisted by the editor and the contest representative, who worked hard and carefully for hours to determine the winner and the recipient of the gold metal. All votes were recorded and carefully packed away that in case of a recount they can be readily produced.

Many thousand votes came to the ballot box on the last day and during the entire count it was a close and interesting race between several of the contestants. However, it was noticed that actual work and close observance of the bonus offer, by Miss Theresa Parsley, was what she secured. Closely following her was Miss Margaret Jones, and several others received a very large scattering vote from their many friends as well as from their own efforts. There were a number of other surprises to The Gazette by the large number of contestants who received a popular vote as the contents of the ballot box was an enigma even to the editor.

This contest promises to be a very lively one as it has opened up with considerable interest and much attention has been directed toward the Gazette giving away a $400 Piano, but such is our intentions and we are interested intensely in our contestants and the results they are obtaining for us is just what we want and any information or assistance that we can render without showing any partiality we will gladly furnish.

Why not work enthusiastically to win this prize and be James City county's favorite and be so generously rewarded. Now is the time to take up the work—votes are what count. Secure every available vote and figure out just how many extra votes you can get on the bonus. In this way place yourself to the top of the list and be in a position to win on the second count on Sept. 23.

In order to make this contest the biggest affair that the Gazette has undertaken in sometime, we wish to make it especially interesting and worth while for each and every contestant, and when the votes are counted the next time.

$10 IN GOLD

will be awarded on Sept. 23 to the lady receiving the greatest increase between the first and second count and $5 in gold to the contestant making the second greatest increase. Remember it goes to the ones who make the greatest increase and not to the ladies having the largest grand total, which gives all an equal chance. Try hard and win one of these special prizes we offer and you will be in good position to make the high vote on the piano.

The following bonus offer will continue and remain unchanged up to Sept. 23, so take advantage of this splendid opportunity to secure votes as this will be positively the largest bonus we will give on any 7 years of subscriptions at any time.

For every 7 new one year subscriptions 10,000 extra bonus votes making a total of 14,200 votes.

For every 7 new one year Renewal subscriptions 8,000 extra bonus votes making a total of 11,500.

For every bunch of 40 merchants' coupons 500 extra bonus votes will be given making a total of 1500 votes. Now is the time to rush in the votes.

The following is the result of the first count.

Miss Theresa Parsley	46,100
Miss Margaret Jones	43,625
Miss Virginia Johnson	20,925
Miss Emma Pilkington	14,725

Miss Eleanor Simonson	12,950
Miss Martha Leath	10,575
Mrs. Henley Sweeney, Jr.	5,375
Miss Inger Scheie	850
Miss Virgie Jones	75
Miss Agnes Morecock	25

The KITCHEN CABINET

ANY one can carry his burden, however heavy, till nightfall. Any one can do his work, however hard, for one day. Any one can live sweetly, patiently, lovingly, purely, till the sun goes down. And this is all that life ever really means.

ECONOMICAL LIVING.

It is a necessity for the majority of people to buy meat to learn to cook those cuts which are cheap, or cheaper, than the choice cuts. As meat is one of our most expensive foods, wise buying will lessen the monthly bills.

Get a pound of meat cut from the rump of beef, cut the pieces in size for serving, roll in flour and brown in a frying pan with beef drippings or suet.

When well browned, add two tablespoons of beef drippings and two tablespoons of flour, mix well and add three cups of stock or water; let this boil. In a casserole put thin slices of a small carrot and onion, and pour over this the boiling mixture with a teaspoonful of salt and a few dashes of red pepper. Cover and place in a slow oven for an hour.

A medium flank steak if carefully cooked is tender, well flavored and palatable. Score the steak on both sides and sprinkle with a tablespoonful of lemon juice or vinegar, which softens the fiber; season with salt, pepper, a dash of nutmeg, cloves and a little chopped onion. Cover thickly with fine bread crumbs, roll up and fasten well with skewers. Sear over well in a hot frying pan, add a pint of stock or water and bake an hour and a half.

A dish which may be new to some is an old one to many of our friends across the water. Bonny clabber. This is simply milk that has become thick, before it is very acid. If it has stood and acquired cream all the better. Serve as one does a custard, sprinkled with a little grated maple sugar or with brown sugar. It is a most wholesome dish for hot weather, good for all ages and especially good for those who have alimentary troubles.

Junket is another easily prepared food, which is both good and cheap.

It is never economy to buy wilted vegetables or questionable fruit. The waste makes them more costly than those which cost a few cents more.

Nellie Mapwell.

The KITCHEN CABINET

NEVER bear more than one kind of trouble at a time. Some people bear three—all they have now, and they ever had and all they expect to have.

GENERAL HINTS.

If the sweet peas, cucumber vines and rose bushes are infested with the ubiquitous bugs and lice which destroy the plants, use the following spray:

Melt a third of a bar of Ivory soap, add a teaspoonful of kerosene and eight quarts of water. Use this in the sprinkler and spray everything that needs it, as it is a universal killer.

A Famous Cholera Cure—Mix together a fourth of a teaspoonful of soda, the same of ginger, fifteen drops of peppermint; add to a glass of hot water. Take a glass of this every three hours.

A Splendid Lotion for Tan.—When preparing cottage cheese, save the whey, and in this cook a good-sized cucumber, peeling and all; cut it in slices before cooking, let stand until cool, strain and add a tablespoonful of alcohol and a teaspoonful of benzoin, two drops of oil of rose. There should be a cupful of the whey and cucumber juice.

A fine shampoo for dark hair is the well-beaten yolk of an egg. Rub it well into the scalp and rinse with several waters. The rinsing of the hair is the important point to have well done. Add a few drops of any desired perfume to the rinsing water and a delicate odor will remain in your tresses for a week. White hair should be rinsed in water quite well blued with bluing.

When buying grape fruit, oranges, lemons, or in fact any large fruit, weigh them in the hands, as the heavier ones are most profitable, are more full of juice.

Carry some sheets of asbestos paper with you when camping; they may be rolled into cone shaped dishes, set point down into the camp fire and will hold any vegetables to be baked, without being troubled with ashes.

Keeping the feet from the floor of the car when riding on the steam cars will relieve car sickness. Support them on a cushion or bag. The vibration of the car causes the illness.

A folding coat hanger is a great convenience to use when traveling. The paper bag which the porter gives you to cover your hat may be used to cover coat, at least the upper part of it. Slip the bag at the bottom and put the hook of the hanger through that.

SHEEP OF THE OCEAN

The sheep of the sea are the black fish. If one member of a flock or school of these gets headed into a coral reef, or shoal water, or a granite cliff for that matter, and gets a bit excited about it, he will rush headlong and all his fellows will follow him as though he were leading a Balaklava charge into the jaws of death while all the world looked on and applauded. And when the cohorts are withdrawn from one of these flying squadron charges and the roll is called there are usually great and yawning gaps in the lines of the school, for fishermen take advantage of the folly of the big fish and slaughter them mercilessly when they get helplessly stranded in the shoal water, for this is an occasion of easy money surpassed only by the breaking to pieces of a ship of rich cargo on a rockbound coast. The black fish is a member of the whale family and a sort of vast pocket edition of that great fish, or water mammal. The foolish fish ranges from ten to twenty feet in length, but is very heavy bodied for its inches. It is coarse of fiber and of little value other than as an oil producer, but for this purpose is an unerring source of revenue to the extent of $15 to $20 each. The North Atlantic is the playground of the black fish and the fishing grounds along Cape Cod is the section where they most frequently run amuck.

BELL TOWER OF VILNA

Dating back to the days of very early Christianity, the bell tower of Vilna, Russia, is an edifice of great interest. Despite the fact that Vilna now is a great industrial center, its authorities are careful in the preservation of such antiquities as the bell tower, the old cathedral and other structures.

PRUSSIA'S OLDEST WOMAN

In Prussia today there lives a woman who has completed her one hundred and twenty-fifth birthday. Census officials have been interested in her case for the last 50 years, first on account of her marvelous memory, and more lately because of her longevity. She is now almost blind, and bent fairly in two with rheumatism. She has been transferred, within the last year, to a Catholic institution where she will be cared for, her children having all died, one son recently at the age of eighty-nine. Another was a Jesuit priest, who died in 1910 at the age of one hundred. Her daughter died the very day the mother attained her one hundred and twenty-fifth year, aged ninety-four. She had, in all, ten children, three dying in infancy. Her descendants number nearly three hundred, counting many great-grandchildren. Her married life extended over eighty-five years, and she has been 25 years a widow. She was married in 1801, at the age of fifteen.

Until within five years she remembered perfectly the Napoleonic wars and prominent officials of Prussia consulted her as to happenings which were matters of historical dispute in the vicinity of Germany where she first saw the light. In order to confirm his dates, an Italian historian, ten years ago, traveled to Prussia to interview her at the suggestion of the keeper of archives in Potsdam.

BONES OF PRIMITIVE MEN

Eleven skeletons of primitive men, with foreheads sloping directly back from the eyes, and with two rows of teeth in the front of the upper jaw, have been uncovered in Craigshill, at Ellensburg, Wash. They were found about 20 feet below the surface, 20 feet back from the face of the slope, in a cement rock formation over which was a layer of shale. The rock was perfectly dry.

The jaw bones, which easily break, are so large that they will go around the face of the man of today. The other bones are also much larger than those of the ordinary man. The femur is 20 inches long, indicating, scientists say, a man of 80 inches tall.

J. P. Munson, professor of biology in the state normal school, visited the spot and pronounced them the bones of a primitive man. The teeth in front are worn almost down to the jaw bones, due, Dr. Munson says, to eating uncooked foods and crushing hard substances with the teeth. The sloping skull, he says, shows an extremely low order of intelligence, far earlier than that of the Indians known to the whites.
